

HAVE GOT/HAS GOT

Write have got or has got:

- I _____ many friends.
- They _____ a pet.
- Sam _____ two rabbits.
- We _____ cornflakes for breakfast.
- My mum _____ a red dress.
- My school _____ a garden.
- The students _____ a lot of homework.
- Elephants _____ big ears.
- She _____ blond hair.
- I _____ a long, dark hair.
- We _____ a big house.
- The students _____ Maths test this week.

Circle the correct answer:

- Sam ___ blond hair and blue eyes.
a.has got b.have got
- My mother ___ a fast car.
a.has got b.have got
- John and Andy ___ dogs.
a.has got b.have got
- Tim ___ lots of homework.
a.has got b.have got
- Susan and Ann ___ a little sister.
a.has got b.have got
- We ___ two sisters and one brother.
a.has got b.have got
- Tom and Kate ___ an interesting hobby.
a.has got b.have got
- Our garden ___ many trees and flowers.
a.has got b.have got

Make the sentences NEGATIVE:

Has->Hasn't Have->Haven't

- Cindy has got a beautiful daughter.

- Anna and Tim have got many friends.

- They have got a big house in the country.

- Our parents have got two cars.

- I have got a younger sister.

Make QUESTIONS:

Have you got a sister?//Has she got a friend?

- My friends have got a black cat.

- My cat has got a long tail.

- My sister has got a boyfriend.

- We have got an uncle in Spain.

- She has got a parrot at home.
